The Public Invited.

Rendall Holland, who spent several days here visiting friends, left for St. Louis Tuesday. He has secured a position there in the automobile and tractor business.

Mrs. Ernest Knopf, returned Sunday from a two weeks absence at the bedside of her sister in Kansas City. The sister died and Mrs. Knopf remained for the funeral.

Henry Davis, formerly Prosecuting Attorney of this county, now practicing law in Fredericktown, was in Farmington Wednesday looking after the interest of a client.

After a full day and night of rain Wednesday and Wednesday night, snow began to fall early yesterday morning and just as good a job was performed along that line.

Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days of the entire winter. Snow fell practically all day, with a high wind blowing, making travel both unpleasant and difficult.

J. S. Clay reports the sale of 16 lots in the town of DeLassus, known as the Clardy place, to Isaac L. and Mary C. Alley for $2,000. Mr. and Mrs. Alley come from Wayne county, Mo.

That splendid old friend of The Times, W. T. Newby, of Route 1, Bonne Terre, and one of the leading citizens of that locality, was in Farmington Saturday and made this office an enjoyable call.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Haynes, who have been living on the Cy Denman farm, moved Wednesday into the little McCarty cottage, owned by Mrs. Roy Swink. Marion expects to get work at Flat River.

J. H. Ward, of Desloge, was here Wednesday looking after his chances for appointment by the County Court as Highway Engineer for the county. He has a pleasing appearance and is an affable young man.

Nicholas Glambtin died Sunday at his home in Doe Run, after a brief illness, of influenza, aged 35 years. Deceased leaves a wife and two children, who have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their deep affliction.

Miss Margaret Henderson, who is in training at St. Luke's hospital, came down last week to nurse her mother, Mrs. Ed Henderson, who is suffering from an attack of influenza. Miss Margaret will return to St. Louis today.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Bailey arrived Wednesday from Oregon, Mo., and are stopping with Judge and Mrs. E. E. Swink until their furniture arrives. After a year's absence, Rev. Bailey has again accepted the pastorate of the Christian churches here and at Flat River.

"Squire" John D. Vance, of Elvins, was a Farmington visitor Tuesday and made The Times office an appreciated call. He was able to get around only with difficulty, suffering from a recent bad fall, which had injured his back and bruised him up considerably.

Miss Allie Patton, the popular assistant at the Farmington postoffice, returned after her work the first of the week, after a visit to her old home in Ironport. While there she contracted the influenza, which necessitated a prolonged absence from her work here.

Harry Larby, of Iowa, who recently purchased the Dock Mackley farm, just east of this city, arrived with his family the last of the week and they are now domiciled in their new home. They formerly lived in this community, are fine folks and will be welcomed back by their many friends here.

The farm of the late P. F. Thurman, ten miles north of Farmington, containing 315 acres, was sold at public auction at the court house in this city, Wednesday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance, and bidding was rather active, though the farm sold at a bargain price, according to those acquainted with it, who pronounce it a splendid farm. J. D. Ramsey, of this city, was the successful bidder.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen and daughter, Miss Ruth, returned the first of the week from a two years' residence in Hildebrand, Cape Girardeau county, where Mr. Allen has been devoting his personal attention to a splendid farm and a large mercantile business. He has sold all his interests there, including farm, business and residence property. His splendid residence in this city being rented, they are boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pease for the present.

In this issue The Times is pleased to present the name of R. C. Detchemendy, of Flat River, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Sheriff of St. Francois county. This is the first Democratic announcement received for county office, and there can be no gainsaying the fact that if Mr. Detchemendy does not lead in the final count of votes for such nomination, those who may exceed him will certainly have to "go some." Mr. Detchemendy, who for several years has held the position of Mine Inspector for the Southwest District of Missouri, and whose splendid work in that position is so well known to everyone, especially throughout the lead belt, has been a resident of that district since 1893, coming from Ste. Genevieve as a young man. He immediately went to mining, in which work he has spent twenty-eight years of his life, and with which work he is thoroughly familiar. He is a life-long Democrat, of the kind who always feels it his duty to spend his time and money freely when there are political battles to be fought. He would be a strong candidate.

The Old, Old Song Is Always New

As spring draws near, "the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." But it does not stop at that; it includes young ladies also—and perhaps some older ones, if there are any such. The idea that some of the mere men may have been sleeping on their blessed privilege of mating is indicated in the following letter recently received by one of our easy going males, written on heavily perfumed and stylish stationery, from a fair damsel who has apparently been too long neglected. She should be able to land a mate during the present year, when a struggle to that end is not denied her. Listen to her sweet notes:

Love's Lone Lonesome.
Loveland City.

Most Handsome Sir:—

I send you this your love to stir. 'Tis you I've chosen first of all on whom to make a Leap Year call. I've given you the foremost chance . . . your heart . . . and I ask you not in jest, and hope you grant my fond request. Your answer either no or yes. But if your heart does not decline, in wedlock hand join in mine. And down the five dollars pay, you must this Leap Year call obey.

And besides, kind sir, a handsome dress. I ask no more and take no less. But I must have either man or money, so kind sir, please send me your reply.

Let me be your little wife until you die.

If you think I am a dandy, please send me a box of candy. And if the writer's name you guess, send it back to her address.

Lovers College,
Prospect Ave.,
Farewell City, Loveland.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Ruby Covington of Bonne Terre left Tuesday morning for a good position as stenographer in the Night and Day Bank of St. Louis.

William Green, who completed his bookkeeping course a couple of weeks ago, writes from St. Louis where he is employed in a bank. He has a splendid position, paying about a hundred and fifty dollars a month.

Mrs. Talitha Hamors returned to school this week to complete her course.

Miss Stella Lewis returned from her home near Fredericktown. Miss Lewis will complete the stenographic course soon.

Miss Hazel Schick, of DeLassus, will complete the stenographic course this week.

Lloyd Angove of Bonne Terre finished his bookkeeping course and a special course in banking this week.

Miss Etta Goforth and Mr. Marvin Farley, both of Peoria, Mo., called the latter part of this week. Both have been teaching public school.

Miss Maybel Ebrecht, who is teaching near Knob Lick, called Monday. Miss Mabel is one of our old students, and one of the county's most successful teachers. She intends to return and complete her course this summer.

Roy Miller visited in Bonne Terre Friday night and Saturday.

Miss Della Hawn has returned for business training after a short vacation.

DEFEATED 31-36

The High School boys' basketball team was defeated last Friday night on the local court by the Fredericktown High team by a score of 31-36. The game was closely and hotly contested all through the periods of play. Farmington won the first game played with Fredericktown this season and the defeat of last Friday night puts them on an even footing.

Herbert Radle very ably refereed the game.

The High School boys' second team will play the Bonne Terre High School here tonight. The boys and girls first teams will go to Flat River tomorrow night to play return games with the Desloge High School teams on the Y. M. C. A. court.

CARL VALLE ENTERTAINS WITH STAG DINNER

Mrs. Carl Valle was out of town last Sunday and her being absent from home was the occasion for putting on a stag dinner at the Valle Home, in which Mr. Valle, Smith AuBuchon, Harry Pease and Fred Kerlagon were participants. The chief item on the menu was smoked seal meat, prepared very daintily by Smith AuBuchon, who seems to be as good as a chef as he is a real estate dealer. Smith also furnished the seal meat for the feed. While he was in Siberia with the U. S. forces, Smith was presented with a quantity of smoked seal meat by the chief of an Eskimo tribe and told to bring it home as a token from the frozen north to the people of America. Smith did as he was commanded and last Sunday was the occasion on which the wishes of the Eskimo chief were heeded. The diners report that the chef prepared the menu very nicely and that the smoked seal meat made a very appetizing dish.

Since partaking of this "far-north" food, Carl and Smith and Harry and Fred seem to have no trouble at all keeping warm in the present cold snap.

CHILD WELFARE

The Child Welfare work in the schools has been carried on successfully and the response on the part of the parents has been most gratifying.

Each child in the schools is to be weighed and measured, and a slip of paper with the weight and height, and also the weight which is normal for his age and height, is given the child to take home to his parents. If the mother presents herself at the school or authorizes someone to act in her place, the child is examined at the clinic, but under no circumstance, is any child examined without full authority of the parents.

The child who is underweight is not a normal child—his food is not of the proper kind, and is not supplying his body with the materials needed to make a normal growth, and it is this malnutrition that causes not only the lack of normal growth but also the slower mental activity of the neglected child. It requires the co-operation of the parents to secure to the child the essentials of health—and every parent should rejoice at the opportunity of talking over the food, rest and recreation habits of her children.

SEVEN DOZEN EGGS PER DAY FROM 100 HENS

A. E. Calvird, who lives at Electric Place, is quite a chicken fancier and is getting some good results from his flock of Ancona hens. He has 100 hens and by scientific feeding and good care he is securing seven dozen eggs each day from his flock.

This is one of the best records we have heard of in some time.

MONDAY CLUB ENTERTAINS

On Monday evening, March 1, the Monday Club entertained its husbands at a Colonial party. The members of the club arrayed in the powder and patches, laces and furbelows of Colonial dames, were most picturesque hostesses, and the musical numbers received an added charm from the quaint costumes of the singers. A delicious buffet supper was served, after which the evening was devoted to music and laughter. When they departed at a late hour, the husbands all voted the Monday Club Colonial party an affair after their own hearts.

N. W. GAMBLIN

N. W. Gambelin was born near Silver Lake, Perry county, Mo., May 7, 1886, and passed away at Doe Run, Mo., Feb. 29, 1920, after a lingering illness of pneumonia following influenza.

In the year 1909 he was united in marriage to Miss Lena Rosenstengel of Doe Run. To this union were born two children, Adorice and Thelma. He leaves a wife, two children, a stepfather and two half-brothers. His mother preceded him in death six years ago. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. P. McDonald at the M. E. Church at 1 p. m., Tuesday, Interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. In the passing of Mr. Gambelin, the children are deprived of a loving father, the wife a devoted husband. He will be missed by his many friends in Doe Run. The Times extends sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

MRS. J. H. WHITTER.

Announcing Our Showing of Spring Millinery

Saturday
March 13th

Mrs. S. C. Watts

IT WAS A REAL TREAT

Mrs. Edith Johnson, M. D., of St. Louis, on Tuesday evening gave a presentation of Browning's famous monologue, "Andrea Del Sarto," at the Monarch, under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church. The audience was not large, which seemed to indicate that Browning has not many devotees in this community. Those present had the important lesson illustrated in that poem brought home to them quite forcefully. The presentation proved Dr. Johnson to be a close student of Browning, and her portrayal was illuminating and edifying.

The program opened with a number of excellent musical numbers, all of which were especially good. Wednesday afternoon Dr. Johnson spoke to women at the Monarch, along the line of health conditions of women.

STATE LEADERS WILL BE HERE

Miss Carrie Panceast, State Home Demonstration Leader, and Miss Addie D. Root, Assistant State Club Leader, are both expected to be present at the adjourned session of the Farm Bureau Annual Meeting, which will be held Thursday, March 11, in Farmington.

We cordially invite every woman to attend this meeting. We expect it to be especially interesting to the women, as well as for the men.

If your husband, father, or brother attends, see that he brings you with him. If he does not plan to come, you come anyway, and bring him with you.

OLIVIA E. PEUGH,
Home Demonstration Agent.
